And one acre of prime land produces 30000 pounds of corrots, or 40000 pounds of potatoes, or 50,000 pounds of tomatoes, or just 250 pounds of beef. This is a grass misuse of resources. Approximately 40,000 people die of hunger, each day, worldwide. Welcome!

The inmates within this site are looking for friends, pen pals, and even that love of their life. Alot of these women are just like you and I...they've made mistakes or bad choices in their life. Now they find themselves in prison lonely and sometimes even cut off from family and friends. This is where you can make a difference! Having their name called during mail call is something alot of these women have not heard.

Take a moment to look through the profiles and you will see that these female inmates are looking for hope, friendship and possibly a new start in life with someone that will help them up instead of bringing them down.
